

BLOODY FIGHTING NOW REPORTED IN GERMANY

GERMANY IS DIVIDED IN ALLEGIANCE TO TWO GOVERNMENTS

South German Cities Refuse to Accept the New Order---General Strike Ties Up City of Berlin

Feared By Many That Germany is on Verge of Great Civil War Workmen's Councils Take Charge in Some Cities

By CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Correspondent)

Berlin, March 15—Reports here today indicated that Germany is divided in allegiance to the new revolutionary government, established here Saturday, and the old republican government of President Ebert. The South German cities, according to advices, have not accepted the new revolutionary government. It was feared in many quarters that Germany is at the beginning of a grave civil war. Reports from Essen said that serious disturbances have occurred there and thirty persons were killed, more than eighty wounded and hundreds of stores looted.

Another report declared that Dr. Von Kopp, dictator of the new revolutionary government, is ready to resign and will urge a coalition of parties to form a new revolutionary government.

The general strike called by President Ebert and Gustav Noske, minister of war, before they left Berlin Saturday, was largely effective here early today. Trains had stopped running, the water supply was cut off in many districts, restaurants were closed and suffering was beginning to be acute, particularly among the poorer classes.

In some quarters there was a disposition to believe that the revolutionists may be short-lived. The effectiveness of the general strike was believed by many to show that Von Kopp has not the support of the majority of the people.

Reports regarding the whereabouts of President Ebert and Gustav Noske were conflicting. There was no confirmation of the report late Saturday some quarters it is said Noske is raising military forces to act against the revolutionists.

The decision of the workers to join the general strike movement came, it was said, after Von Kopp had refused to accede to the union ultimatum that he resign.

There were many indications that socialists of the Ebert group have not abandoned a move to unseat the revolutionists.

Functionaries of the union of socialists employes have refused to acknowledge Von Kopp and are acting in concert with the railroad group.

Secretaries of state have decided to remain in Berlin to expedite current business, but have refused to have any relations with the revolutionary government.

Other reports said that the government of eastern Prussia has issued a manifesto recognizing the revolutionary as the defacto government. Some southern German regiments have gone over to the revolutionists, it is said. Von Kopp has issued a statement declaring that the revolutionary government will carry out the promises made by the Ebert government to try the war guilty accused by the allies. The trial, Von Kopp said, will be held at Leipzig, as the Ebert government had planned. The defacto government claims that its forces have occupied Kiel after violent fighting.

Von Haniel has taken over the affairs of the foreign office left without a head when Herman Mueller was ousted, and announced that he was offering his technical services in the interest of the nation, but had not abandoned his allegiance to Ebert. It was reported that the Reichswehr generals have resigned rather than serve under the revolutionary laborites, and Karl Ruhr have struck after protesting against Von Kopp, it was said.

Revolution Meeting with Varying Success

Frankfort, March 15—The counter revolution is meeting with varying success in western Germany, according to unofficial reports received here today. The old government has been defeated in several cities following bloody fighting, it was said.

Forces loyal to the Ebert administration were said to have been compelled to retire from Schwerin. At Weimar the new government also was said to have been victorious.

A workmen's council apparently showing allegiance to neither the Ebert administration nor Von Kopp's government assumed the power in Bochum and disarmed the inhabitants.

Following declarations of a general strike at Hanover, workmen and students engaged in a sanguinary battle. The students occupied the railroad building.

Ebert Refuses to Negotiate with New Government

London, March 15—The government of President Ebert has refused to negotiate with the Berlin revolutionists. Ebert declared in an interview at Dresden, according to a dispatch here today, Ebert was reported in the interview as expressing full confidence in the outcome of the present situation.

"The new Berlin government already has offered to negotiate with us, but we have refused absolutely," Ebert said, according to the dispatch. "We take the ground that the new government in Berlin does not represent any party group. It is merely a few partisans," he said.

REVOLUTION DOOMED TO FAILURE

By HENRY WOOD
United Press Correspondent

Paris, March 15 (4 P. M.)—Information from Germany received by the French foreign office indicates that the revolutionary movement under the dictatorship of Von Kopp is doomed to failure.

The majority of socialists, democrats and even some sections of the reactionary element have repudiated the revolution.

Foreign office advices asserted Van Kopp's final hope it is believed, lies in the organization of a purely Prussian cabinet.

The revolution, the foreign office advices indicated, has failed completely in all provinces except western Prussia. France, it was said, has delegated Consul Bruere to go to Stuttgart to observe developments there.

Ebert has called the national assembly to convene in Stuttgart on Wednesday General Mollet, head of the French mission in Berlin, notified the foreign office that he has refused flatly the request of Von Luttwitz, the revolutionary war minister, that the allies extend the period of German disarmament.

Sims Continues Criticism of Navy Department

RAYMOND CLAPPER,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 15—Negligence of the navy department in protecting troop transports early in the war was virtually charged by Rear Admiral Wm. Sims, resuming his testimony in the senate navy inquiry today.

Sims declared he was "horrified" at the lack of precaution concerning troop movements, and asserted that the first train reached France safely because of "good luck". Inadequate arrangements were made for destroyers escorting the transport through danger zones. Society women and others in Paris knew of the troops sailing before naval officials and General Pershing were aware of it, Sims said.

Sims said the navy department used an outworn peace time code even after a warning that the Germans knew its key.

Failure to sink many army transports was largely due to the desire of Germany not to unduly embitter the United States, Sims declared.

Sailing of the first destroyer was published in papers in Berlin four days before the ships actually left Queenstown, Sims said.

"God was Good to Us"

Washington

New York's "wets" and "drys" have taken the spotlight from their Rhode Island and New Jersey brethren. Assemblyman Louis A. Cuvillier, who introduced a bill legalizing the sale of six per cent beer and a resolution calling for the investigation of the Anti-Saloon League's political activities, declares John D. Rockefeller, Jr., pays William H. Anderson, the league's state superintendent, a salary of $15,000 a year. Assemblyman Cuvillier announces that he will call Mr. Rockefeller as a witness if an investigation is ordered. Following close on the heels of a second attack by Anderson upon Catholic leaders, Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes, of New York, denounced Anderson as "a brewer of bigotry, a fomentor of distrust, a sinister figure in American politics and a breeder of mischief."

BAECCOCK PLAN TO BE STUDIED

450 County Commissioners To Attend Meeting at St.
Paul

St. Paul, March 16—Four hundred and thirty county commissioners—five from each of the 86 counties in Minnesota—and the county auditors of the state are to be invited to come to St. Paul and Minneapolis March 23 and 24 to hear Amendment No. 1, or the Babcock highway law, discussed.

Expenses of the visitors are to be paid out of a fund of $12,000 raised for that purpose, a committee representing the St. Paul Association and the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce association having raised the amount way Improvement association candidate of the Minnesota Highpaign.

S. P. A. Arranging Meeting

Plans for the conference are being completed by the St. Paul Association committee and other interested good roads boosters, and invitations will go to the county commissioners and auditors in a few days.

The purpose of the two-day conference is not to burden the visitors with sheer propaganda, but to familiarize them with the provisions of the proposed amendment, which will be submitted to the voters for popular ratifi-

General Understanding Necessary

At the conference of state highway engineers held recently at the old capitol it was pointed out in the course of the discussions that a comprehensive understanding of the amendment was not general among county officials throughout the state.
In virtually all localities where the amendment has been thoroughly explained sentiment favors the ratification, but the need of an intense educational campaign was emphasized.

The county officials will meet one day in St. Paul and one day in Minn-neapolis, and persons familiar with the provisions of the amendment will explain the law and answer all questions pertaining to it. Later the county engineers and surveyors will have the amendment explained to them.

AT THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Presbyterian Sunday School

For attendance and attention to the different exercises and lessons, yesterday was one of the best this year. Envelopes for the coming year were given out. Pledge cards were signed last Sunday. It is the aim of the school this year to have every member adopt the envelope system of giving.

Subscriptions for new hymn books were taken up both at the church service and from the Sunday school. Fifty-seven were subscribed at the church service and the Sunday school pledged thirty-three. The different classes pledged as follows: Mrs. Smiley's class five; Miss Anderson's class three; Miss Dillen's class two; Mrs. Reese's class two; Mr. Bierhaus's class three; Mr. Erickson's class two; Mrs. McKay's class two; Mrs. Barker's class two. The remaining two were personal gifts. The Sunday school as a whole pledged ten.

A meeting of the officers and teachers of the Sunday school will be held at the church Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Everyone is urged to come as there is business of special importance to come before the meeting. Among other things will be selection of officers for the coming year.

The D. Y. B. class held its regular monthly meeting last Friday night at the home of Miss Kimball. A splendid and profitable meeting is reported.

The attendance of the primary department is increasing again. Twenty-three were lost by graduation a short time ago but this loss is rapidly being made up with new members. Forty-seven were out yesterday.

Miss Violet Creeger gave a very interesting account of the missionary work in India. Taking the different religions of that country she showed how workers to secure a foothold and have an opportunity to teach Christ how hard it has been for the Christian to the people and especially to the women. We were delighted to learn of the big work which the Presbyterian church is doing in this field.

The Sunday school is the big factor in every community which stands between the child and the dangers of the world. Give the child a training in the teachings of the Master; instill in his heart and life the vision of Christ and the world will have nothing to offer which can call him away.

If your children are not going to Sunday school why not start next Sunday?

Methodist Church School

Attendance yesterday was 207. The school was assembled for closing devotions and made a very pretty appearance.

The evangelistic campaign is proceeding splendidly and a large number of the older members of the school will unite with the church on Easter.

The senior department will give their March sociable on Tuesday night at the church.

Miss Mildred Brown gave a most interesting talk on India and Enoch Marabu read the scripture in the opening service of the Intermediate department.

The Philathea class have adopted the book "The Methodist church and its worth" for their text during the next quarter.

The Training class will hold their examinations on Thursday evening at the regular class hour.

The Men's class is steadily gaining in number and interest. Rev. E. A. Cooke is now teaching this class.

The school is preparing to make the Easter offering large as the need is great. This is a distinctly missionary offering.

C. F. Ritter sang a solo in the opening service of the Adult department.

First Congregational Sunday School

With the nearing of Spring, comes a corresponding, slightly increasing attendance of Sunday school. Boxes for the special Easter offering have not yet arrived, but it is expected they will reach here by next Sunday. Save your pennies and your nickels and your dimes, children of our school, that your box may show the fruit of your earning and saving.

Last Monday evening the teachers met with Mrs. Grewcock. After a short business session, all enjoyed an evening chat, and delicious refreshments.

The Study Class will meet, as usual on Wednesday, 4:30, at the parsonage. Much interest is being taken in this class by the members of the school.

Swedish Bethany Sunday School

The attendance last Sunday was very gratifying. The Boys Club class, Oscar Swanson teacher, had 100 per cent attendance; the Junior girls, Miss Mary Soderlund teacher, had 100 per cent; and the Primary class, Miss Ethel Fredstrom teacher, had 100 per cent attendance; the Junior boys class, Frank Anderson, teacher, had 99 per cent attendance. The girls class of K. S. Breidenberg had nearly a full attendance. The attendance in the larger classes was below the average, which kept the general average lower than was hoped for.

Work was started on the program to be given by the school on Easter Sunday. A good program is promised by the children.

The Salvation Army Company Meeting

"Up and at It" seems to be the idea of our boys and girls, seventy-six of whom were all attention during the hour and a half spent together yesterday afternoon. Total attendance among all branches of the Y. P. work was one hundred and eleven.

We meet for class work at 3 p. m. each Sunday, but until after Easter, at 2:30 p. m. "You will always find a welcome at the great S. A." Become a regular.

Basket Social

The Dorcas society of the Swedish Bethany church will give a basket social tomorrow night in the basement of the parsonage. A large number of baskets are looked for and a good jolly time is assured all who attend. It is for the benefit of the parsonage fund. A hearty welcome is extended to all.

Degree of Honor

The Degree of Honor will give a package sale at their meeting on Tuesday evening March 16. All members are asked to bring a ten cent package.

Don't Neglect the Little Ones

Mrs. J. S. Pitson, 376 E. 156th St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I can't speak too highly of Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has a cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while." Children like it. It contains no opiates. It is healing, soothing, prompt in action. H. P. Dunn.

ROMANCE IN SCHOOL

Mr. Good is principal of the Crosby high school and Miss Whitcomb is a first grade teacher. The wedding will take place March 27 in St. Cloud.

This is the second romance of the kind in Crosby schools, the first wedding being of the mathematics teacher and a first grade teacher of Iron- ton.

LEONARD WOOD

Leonard Wood was born 59 years ago in New Hampshire. He graduated from Harvard Medical School. His first services were given gratuitously to the poor of Boston. He then entered the army as a surgeon but when the organization to which he was attached got into the Apache campaign in the southwest he was given an infantry command.

For his work in this campaign he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest honor that this government can give for bravery in action. His commanding officer in his official report of the campaign said of Wood: "He placed me under obligations so great that I cannot express them."

When but thirty-nine years old, he became the Civil Governor General of Cuba. His work there required the adoption of a new constitution for the new republic, re-writing the laws, including a new railroad re-organization law, the revision of public works and the complete and new installation of public schools and the building of public roads, water works and sewerage systems.

For the first time Cuba was clean. He had changed one of the most oppressed countries of the world into a liberal and prosperous republic. Of his work Theodore Roosevelt, in a message to Congress, spoke in the highest terms of Wood's executive and constructive capacity.

His later work in the Philippines was of the same character as in Cuba. His work at Camp Funston during the war demonstrates his high character and his great ability to gain the implicit confidence of the men working with him.

His recent work in the very difficult situations in which he was placed under orders from the war department at Omaha, Gary and West Virginia abundantly demonstrate his firmness, fairness, tact and good common sense.

We present his name to the men and women of the Republican party of this county and city with confidence that under his competent guidance, American principles and ideals will be steadfastly upheld, an efficient administration secured, trying and vital problems wisely and fairly solved and the safety of this nation and all its citizens assured.

It is the duty of republican men and women to attend the party primary in the various wards tonight and express their preference for the republican presidential nominee.

MANUAL FOR MOTORISTS

A pamphlet entitled "Manual for Motorists" has been compiled by Julius A. Schmalz and we would recommend that all owners and drivers of automobiles secure one of these for their own use. The booklet contains a concise condensation of the state law governing the use of motor vehicles in plain language so that everyone can understand it. Minnesota has a very good law governing the use of motors and if it is obeyed by all drivers there would be a very few accidents in the state. Think it over.

NORTHWEST NEWS

Republican Primaries Tonight

St. Paul, March 15—Republican voters of Minnesota tonight will express their preferences for presidential nominees.

Precinct caucuses will be held tonight in practically all of the 2,119 precincts of the state.

Delegates to the 86 county conventions will be named by this system. County conventions will be held on Wednesday. District caucuses will follow on Friday and on Saturday the state Republican convention will meet here.

Gustav Lindquist, chairman of the Republican state central committee today urged every Republican voter to register a preference for county convention candidates and presidential material.

There will be 1,100 delegates to the state convention, picked on the basis of votes cast for governor in the last general election.

The forces of Governor Barnquist and his secretary, Lindquist, have been thrown to the support of General Leonard Wood.

United States Senator Hiram Johnson, Republican candidate for president also has campaigned the state.

Governor Frank O. Lowden delivered a dozen or so speeches recently going first to his old home at Sunrise, Minn., in Chicago county where he was born. It was the first time Lowden had visited the place in 35 years.

The Herbert Hoover club of Minneapolis and St. Paul has sent out thousands of stickers to have the name of Herbert Hoover placed on the precinct ballots, after Chairman Lindquist had refused the club's request.

Sen. Miles Poindexter and others are expected to be named in the precinct balloting, but Poindexter has made no direct campaign in Minnesota.

Minnesota Democrats will hold their state convention April 5.

The National Nonpartisan League

and Working People's non-Partisan Political league have called joint conventions to be held here March 24 and 25. A mass meeting will be held the evening of March 26 when speakers will be engaged to outline a program.

Wood Tours South Dakota

Watertown, S. D., March 15—Major General Leonard Wood, Republican candidate for South Dakota's presidential nomination, began a second tour of the state here today. He will speak at Clark.

Other cases set for Thursday are William Rossing versus Jens Pedersen, order Cottonwood county, and John L. Sammons vs. the village of Westbrook, et al, a judgment of cottonwood county.

Friday's calendar is: Peter Canelous vs. Chris. Zolatis, Blue Earth county and Frank Menton, the same

Shoe Prices Will Not Fall

Minneapolis, March 15—Shoe prices are not likely to go down and in fact may continue to rise, according to retail shoe dealers here today. More than 5,000 retail shoe merchants of the northwest are expected to attend the three day convention called by the Minnesota Retail Shoe Dealers' association.

Fred P. Mann, Devils Lake, N. D., known as the "biggest little merchant in the world" is to address the convention tomorrow.

Seed Bonds Sold

Minneapolis, March 15—Bonds totaling $350,000 are to be sold today to raise money with which to buy seed for needy farmers. These bonds are from Dodgeville, Stark and Dunn counties, which according to the law must place them on market through the office of the commissioner of agriculture and labor.

It is estimated at the office of the commissioner that $2,500,000 worth of bonds to assist the farmers will be sold this year. Of this amount $925,000 has been purchased by the state board of school and university lands.

Scottish Rite Reunion

Fargo, March 15—Scottish Rite Masons are holding their annual three days' winter reunion here. A large class will be initiated. The railroads granted a reduced rate for those who came from other parts of the state.

Not His Own Words

The hoary-headed examiner glanced over the top of his spectacles. "Are you sure," he inquired, "that this is a purely original composition you have handed in?"

"Yes, sir," came the answer. "But you may possibly, sir, have come across one or two words in the dictionary."—Blighly.

What's in a Number?

An aero squadron, preparatory to the start for the front, was being initiated again into the mysteries of close-order drill. While most of the men knew every nut, bolt and square inch of canvas on the planes, they were more than hazy about the forgotten details of their apprenticeship days in the army.

"Squads right!" bellowed the commanding officer.

The majority of the squadron managed to get there somehow or other, but No. 3, rear rank, fourth squad, was totally lost. He maneuvered aimlessly about the field for a time, trying to find his place, and finally walked into the arms of the captain.

"Here, you, where do you belong? What's your number?"

The buck snapped out of his trance. "No. 284523, sir," he announced.—The Home Sector.

Small Girl's Criticism.

Little five-year-old Lois had been told not to be in such a hurry when she put away her playthings, to take a little more care and pack them straight. One evening her grandma was taking her home after dark. As they were walking along the street lights were turned on. She looked up and asked: "Grandma, who turned all of those lights on at once?" On being told a man at the electric light plant turned them on, she said: "Well, then, who turns on all the lights in the sky?" Grandma told her God did that. Noticing that the new moon was tilted at a different angle from what she had noticed before, she said rather disgustingly: "Well, I wish God would take just a little more time when he turns on the lights and turn that moon on straight while he is about it."

This Half-Dollar Rare.

Ever since the news that a silver half-dollar of 1853 brought $2,500 was published throughout the country a few years ago, there has been a greater misconception as to this coin than any other ever struck by the United States mints. This arises from the fact that there are two kinds of half-dollars of 1853. The rare variety has no arrows at the dates and there is no number on its reverse.

Only two specimens of this coin are known to be in existence. Half dollars of 1853 with arrows at date and sunbursts on the reverses are very numerous, however, and they have frequently dashed the hopes of holders who were unfamiliar with the distinction between the two varieties of the coin.

A Pessimist's Observation.

"We have no army of the unemployed."

"I don't know," rejoined Mr. Growcher. "After watching a few of the helpers who have come along in connection with various kinds of work, I have concluded that we have a large number in a state of unemployment. The difference is that they get paid for it."

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

A Man to Man Policy that Wins

THE Standard Oil Company was a pioneer in the petroleum industry. From the day of its organization to the present moment the Company has put forth every effort to make and sell goods of the highest quality and always has been satisfied to work on a small profit. It has made money for its 4711 stockholders by reason of the volume of business done.

In its dealings with the men and women who make up its working organization, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has maintained a policy of fairness and liberality which has held its men and inspired them with the high ideals of service which have been the key to its prosperity.

Today the 22,000 employees are working as one man to increase production and decrease the cost of manufacture and distribution, for they know that their every effort is appreciated in terms which are substantial.

The working and living conditions of the men and women employed by the Company always have been matters of major interest to those in authority. Under the plan now in process of organization, the employees will be given an ever-increasing voice in the management of their affairs.

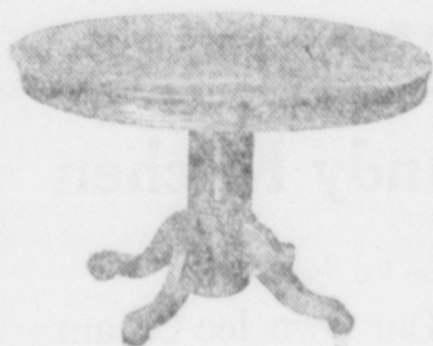

The spirit of fairness which animates both the Company and its employees, in their relations with one another, has again proved that all that is needed to increase production and insure industrial peace is to make it possible for the employer and employee to sit down and discuss all phases of their problems man to man.

AUSTRIAN DESPOT IN ITALY

Excellent Reasons Why Commandant in Town of Buje Was Feared and Detested.

During the war, Austria, fearing and hating the Italians of Istria, placed every town under drastic military control.

It was the chief task of Colonel Vogelhuber, commander of Buje, to make the Italians feel his presence. They had felt it one day. Increased by his latest decrees, they had come in crowds below his window, discussing, gesticulating, angrily demanding an audience, until his troops had rammed them in the stomach with the butts of rifles and driven them off—off to their homes where they would find that during their absence a few more objects had mysteriously disappeared, wooden clothing, perhaps, or some pieces of furniture or a cherished picture. Not stolen, of course, but "requisitioned." It was neat.

He had had a good day but he would have a better evening. They had wanted an audience. Very well. That evening he would grant an audience to their leading citizens. More than that—he would dine them!

The leading citizens of Buje will not soon forget that dinner. The meal itself was excellent—infinitely better than any that they had had for months. It consisted of meats "requisitioned" from their own herds and flocks, grain from their own fields, wine from their own cellars. The host, Colonel Vogelhuber, sat at the head of the table, all smiles and benignity. He was solicitous that every one should have plenty. When the repast was finished, he rose.

He called the attention of the Italians of Buje to the fact that he had sent very few of them to Austrian internment camps. He emphasized his tolerance and liberality in this matter. His action, however, had been guided by a definite purpose. It might please them to be informed as to the purpose which he had had in mind.

"I do not care to intern you," he said, in a smiling climax, "because I prefer to execute you!"

"The troops of Italy are at present making some advance. I wish simply to announce to you now that before they ever reach Buje I shall have the pleasure of seeing every man of you shot. Good night, gentlemen. The pleasure has been mine."

Then, showing the yellow streak always present in such natures, he hastily summoned his soldiers, and every guest was escorted to the street at the point of a bayonet.

A gay, dashing wag was Vogelhuber. Dashing he was certainly, a few weeks later, when the Italian Bersagliere swept into Buje so suddenly that he did not have time to make good his promise, but found it prudent to run to save himself. Then, when the precious cartload of stolen treasures behind him.—Willard Price, in World Outlook.

DIDN'T FEAZE THE PROFESSOR

Snake Expert Got Out of Rather Tight Fix in a Somewhat Clever Manner.

There is a certain professor of natural history who delights in propounding catch questions to his class, and one young fellow, who had been caught by one, determined to get even. At the next class, therefore, he said gravely:

"Professor, you have made a special study of snakes, have you not?"

"Yes, I think I am fairly well informed as to that branch," the professor responded.

"Then, professor, you can undoubtedly inform me on a point which, while doubtless simple, puzzles me. May I ask you a question?"

The professor began to feel uneasy, but there was nothing to reply but "yes."

"Then, sir, what I desire to know is, where does a snake's tail begin?" the young fellow asked gravely.

The professor was silent for a moment, and a titter began to run over the room, which increased to a roar as the professor replied calmly:

"That is quite simple; it begins at the end of the snake which is not the head."

WILL TUNNEL UNDER STRAIT

Japanese Authorities Said to Have Decided Upon Engineering Feat of Magnitude.

Several months ago announcement was made that the imperial government railways of Japan intended to build a tunnel under the Shimoda strait. This strait separates the main island of the Japanese group, Honshu, from the smaller island of Kinkun at the south. It is now crossed by a car ferry, which is rapidly becoming insufficient to meet the demands that are made upon it. Two years are to be spent in studying the geological formation of the sea bed in the strait and in drafting of the general plan of work in preparation for the actual undertaking of tunneling, so that the real work will not commence until 1921. Engineers and workmen will be sent to America and Europe to make a study of what has been achieved in these countries in the way of tunnel engineering. The line is to be seven miles long, one mile of which will be entirely under the sea. The approximate cost of the undertaking will be about $10,000,000 and the work is expected to be completed in 1928.—Scientific American.

Can't Set Prices
Washington, March 15—The United States supreme court has ruled that resale price fixing is a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Under this system manufacturers would set the price at which retailers should sell their goods.

Want Free Text Books
Springfield, Ill., March 15—The central labor union will circulate petitions to have a free text book proposal placed on the local election ballot. Under a recent legislative act municipalities are given this power.

Attempt to Break Strike

New York, March 15—Under a heavy guard of special police the Fall River steamship line was employing 250 non-union cargo handlers today in an attempt to break the strike of longshore men. Strike breakers were not being used on any of the piers.

BEGIN HOT WATER DRINKING IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT
Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and freshening, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, headachy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.

At Usual Polling Places in Brainerd Between the Hours of 7:30 and 8:30 O'clock

INTEREST MANIFESTED IN SAME

Outlying Farmer Districts Handicapped by Muddy, Almost Impassable Roads

The republican primary for expressing preference for president and electing delegates to the county convention will be held this evening at usual polling places, the hours being from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock.

These are the following places in Brainerd:

- 1st Ward—City hall.
- 2nd Ward—Court house.
- 3rd Ward—Hose house.
- 4th Ward—Hose house.
- 5th Ward—Bane's garage.

Interest is manifested in Brainerd,
Crosby, Ironton, Deerwood, Pequot and Jenkins in Crow Wing county and a large vote is expected there.

A forecast in Brainerd favors in this order: Wood, Johnson, Hoover, Lowden.

Brainerd women operating through a Community Council had instructions on primary voting issued to ward chairmen, block chairmen and block workers. A county woman's organization is working for Wood.
Interest is also shown among the women for Hoover.

Some outlying farmer districts handicapped by muddy and heavy roads may have little or no primary.

stands. They will be instructed at a meeting of the national executive committee in Washington, March 22.
The Minnesota member of the national executive committee will receive his instructions at a meeting of the thing and deserves the opinion of every soldier," said F. R. N. Anderson,

CHAMBER COMMERCE MEETING TUESDAY

Leo Patrick Cook of Houghton, Mich., Prospect for Secretaryship, to Be Present

SUPPER TO BE SERVED AT 6:15

Murphy's, Brown Gravy, Prime Beef
Etc.—Get-Acquainted Meeting of Chamber

Special attention is called to the Chamber of Commerce program Tuesday evening. Leo Patrick Cook of Houghton, Michigan, a prospect for the secretaryship of the Chamber will be in Brainerd tomorrow to look over the situation here and it is to the interest of every member to meet Mr.
Cook and decide whether or not he is the man for the position.

It is thought that the best method of doing this and also entertain Mr.
Cook is to stage one of the Chamber's popular suppers at 6:15. The menu includes:

Murphy's, Brown Gravy, Prime Beef,
and all the trimmings and side-dishes that ought to make any man's mouth water just to read about it and bring him up to the test a board at least one-half hour before the dinner gong rings.

Immediately after the supper there will be a Get-Acquainted meeting of the Chamber. Some interesting things will come up at this meeting and it is hoped that every member will attend and take an active part in the proceedings.

Remember the date. Tomorrow evening, 6:15, supper, and the big meeting immediately after. A full house for both. Don't let any other engagements conflict with this important event.

Be at the Chamber tomorrow evening.

FAIR AND FORTY

By LILLIAN M. RICHARDS.

(© 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Down on a narrow street, where the newsboys are shouting "extra" most of the time, Myra Wiggins sits at the cashier's desk in one of those famous restaurants with a buckwheat front. For three years now she has sat in the same window. Her eyes and ears are always open and nothing escapes her notice.

"Say, mister," loudly called Myra one day to a customer trying to sneak out. "pay your check here, please."

"Huh," growled the man, coming back. "think you're smart, don't you?" And slamming the money down on the counter, "I suppose you thought I was trying to steal a feed."

"My goodness, no," replied Myra, smilingly. "Guess you were suddenly called to a fire; but after this, when in here, be sure and see me before you leave."

"Well, is that so," sneeringly. "I suppose you're the one who runs this place, or maybe you—"

Just then her antagonist felt a strong hand grab his collar and demand an apology. Without hesitating the irritant murmured something about being sorry, and slunk out of the door. Myra's well-rounded face became as red as roses when she looked up into the set features of big Jim Roland.

Jim was a traveling man, and every time he came to town it was not the ends alone that brought him to this well-known restaurant. Myra Wiggins' welcome smile and pleasant "How do" won him from the start. Now their friendship grew rapidly into something more deep and lasting.

They were both around the age of forty and had come to that quiet understanding of accepting things as they were; neither inquired into the other's affairs.

A buxom widow was Myra, with one child, whom she boarded at a small farmhouse in the country. Little Irene Wiggins was the joy of her life, and Myra delighted in her trips to the region where she could breathe God's pure air, away from the smoke and dust of the city. One day, as she and Irene were starting for a stroll over the hills, a rosy-cheeked lad of ten begged to go with them.

"He lives here, too, mamma," pleaded her little girl. "He's my bestest chum. Can't he go?"

"Well, all right," replied Myra, good-naturedly, and taking his hand she inquired: "What's your name, little boy?"

"My name's Jack Roland," was his sturdy reply, as he stumbled along by her side.

"Roland?" gasped she, hearing the name. Then, curiously, "And what's your father's name? Jack, too?"

"No, my daddy's name is Jim," and with upturned face, "you've never met my daddy, have you? He's the biggest man in the world."

Myra's thoughts were racing a mile a minute, and her cheeks burned with curiosity. "He must mean my Jim," she thought, and still it didn't seem possible. The children ran ahead and were sliding on the ice, little dreaming of the turmoil they'd created for Myra. After a few minutes' silent pondering she called them to her side and turned back toward the house. As they were chatting in their childish way she heard little Jack say to Irene:

"My Nanna's coming this afternoon with daddy. She brings me candy and everything."

Unable to restrain the question any longer Myra asked, "And who's your Nanna, little boy?" at the same time dreading the answer.

"Why, that's his mother, of course," quickly replied Irene, as if Myra ought to know.

"She works in the city," joined Jack wistfully.

It was with quiet dignity that she refused Jim's many invitations the next week, and his big, jovial face wore a puzzled expression, although he said nothing. Myra, who was usually the picture of health, looked drawn and pale. She'd grown fond of Jim Roland, and to discover him in this light hurt not a little.

Tucking Irene on her sled, Myra started down the back lane through the meadows. The cold, clear air brought the color to her cheeks, as Irene pulled the end of her scarf and shouted, "Giddy-up-horsey." It was a wonderful day and ended all too quickly. On their way back as Myra went to jump a brook she fell with a scream in the snow. Irene tried to help her up, but finding her arms limp became frightened and cried for help. Little Jack Roland and his daddy, who were walking near by, came to their assistance.

There's always room at the top

That's why Spur Cigarettes have won. There are plenty of cigarettes of merit, some claiming one pleasing feature, some another. But there was room—at the top—for a still better cigarette—one that had all the goodness of the others and then some!

Spur Cigarettes were made with that object in view—to fill that place at the top.

The choicest American and Imported tobaccos were blended by a new method that brings out to the full that good old tobacco taste that smokers are always seeking.

Satiny, imported paper was used. It is crimped, not pasted, to make an easier-drawing, slower-burning cigarette.

Then these super-cigarettes were put into a smart "brown-and-silver" package, three-fold, to keep them fresh and rich in that good old tobacco taste.

Lastly, Spurs were priced at twenty for 20c—the lowest possible price for a cigarette of highest possible quality!

Smokers tried Spurs. Their verdict, everywhere, has been: "A high-bred cigarette!"

Children Like It

"You know it is not an easy matter to get children to take medicine, and forcing it on them does no good. Most mothers know that a cough medicine, while palatable, should contain no drug injurious to the child."

The great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is explained by the fact that it contains no opium or narcotic of any kind, and at the same time is so pleasant and agreeable to the taste that children like
